

Chandra Ahmed Khan

Biography

Chandra Ahmed Khan has 16 years experience as an intuitive communicator, spiritual healer and teacher who works on many dimensional levels. Despite severe physical limitations and labeled a “vegetable” by the medical profession, Chandra successfully attended Arizona State University’s Gifted Children’s Program from age 11 to 15 where she studied biology with honors. She has her own business and travels throughout the United States and Europe doing spiritual presentations and healings as well as teleseminars video conferencing.

Dubbed “Grandmother” Chandra by Native Americans for her wisdom, her life’s mission or goal is to awaken as many people as possible to their true soul’s purpose. To this end, she is creating worldwide centers that enrich and empower all those she touches.
